The Capacity Building Through Recreation and Sports Conference provides professional development and training opportunity for those coaches, recreation directors, and community leaders working with youth in their community.

Conference delegates will be inspired by leading keynote speakers, connect with other organizations in Exhibitor's Hall, and take part in educational and motivational sessions.

- Sports and the Law
- What funding is available through First Nation Casinos
- Shared Visions Build harmony
- Measuring Capacity Building in your Community
- Strategic Planning

The Banquet on Friday night will recognize outstanding youth and community leaders who have made significant contributions through sport and recreation in their communities.

Full program, schedule and registration information will be sent to your communities in the coming weeks.
